

"The State of the Ministry"

By Mark Levitt

Zola has asked that I draft an informal annual report on the business side of our ministry. In some ways, this year has seemed to fly by too fast to recall much more than a blur, but on the other hand, we've been instrumental in an incredible amount of God's work.

I love to use cars in analogies, but this ministry reminds me more of a 747 aircraft on autopilot. Our course is chartered by God; we cherish the passengers whose Godly walk we enrich, and we work as hard as we can because we know many lives are in the balance. Most of all, there are a number of variables we can't control.

The economic and political trends have been prophesied much the same as bad weather typically is, but it's still difficult to be calm in the eye of the storm. Some of our readers don't like the news that Zola reports, his "bias" in favor of Israel and his "partiality" toward the Chosen People. The truth is that Zola is just chronicling the flight, not running the airline.

Creating these four major TV series (and three music albums), our staff, each month, has produced two newsletters, processed 6,000 pieces of mail and shipped 4,000 packages!

Most exciting at this point is our new ten-program television series Israel: By Divine Right! Though we gathered all of its location film footage in October, the post-production effort and expenses will carry us well into January. With our total assets amounting to a month's expenses, it's a step of faith to commit to this level of outlay when we're barely paying our bills on time. Don't read me wrong here; this isn't a subtle fundraising hint. If you have funds earmarked for year-end giving, I'm asking you to put them toward proclaiming what some doctors of theology have missed: Israel has a divine right to its land!

In May this year, on the national Family Channel network, we aired the Secrets of the Dead Sea Scrolls Special at prime time. Why did the media obscure the fact that we now have secular corroboration of a spiritual leader slain with "wounds and piercings" at exactly the time of Christ? Why does the Boston Sunday Globe put the words Jewish Believer in quotes and scoff at the most renowned Dead Sea Scrolls scholars? Our seven-program Secrets of the Dead Sea Scrolls series starts with an Associated Press news release and concludes with an interview with a professor of Aramaic, the language of Jesus.

The eight-program Unto the Gentiles television series was our main project for the spring. From Jerusalem to Greece, Philippi, Thessalonica, Berea and Athens, we followed in Paul's footsteps when he proclaimed the Good News of the Jewish Messiah who was sent also to the Gentiles.

Inspired by the value of testimonies of Jews in Israel who have come to know Yeshua HaMashiach (Jesus the Messiah) as Lord, we produced the eight-program Believers series. It offers lively Israeli music and shares stories of a former rabbinical student, a Palestinian who converted from believing in Mohammed to Jesus and even Messianic Jews from the U.S. who have returned to the land of their fathers.

During the creation of these four major TV series (and three music albums), our staff of a dozen has continued, each month, to distribute two newsletters (plus the LLX), process roughly 6,000 pieces of mail and 1,200 1-800 phone messages and ship 4,000 packages!

We renewed our lease this year. It was funny that after ten years of steady growth, our landlord, reviewing our financial statements, didn't want to extend us the credit necessary to paint and carpet our office suite! They admired our faith, gave us a low rate, and now, three years later, we've signed on for four more years.

Excluding the power of God and His gifts of talent to Zola and our television producer Ken Berg, there isn't very much to this ministry. Half of our net worth is simply our inventory of Bible teaching materials--videotapes, music, books, etc. The remainder is divided between our checkbook and office equipment. Our intangible assets include the divine guidance of our readership, our library of almost three hundred television programs and our indispensable courageous and energetic staff.

We love this work. Happy is the man whose work is his play, and we're happy. Asked what I would improve if anything brings up the perpetual challenge: television airtime. We have created some of the most important half-hour television People often say to us that they do not want to offend their Jewish friends by telling them the Gospel. The following poem is therefore relevant.

“My Friend”

Author Unknown

My friend, I stand in judgment now,
And feel that you're to blame somehow.
On earth I walked with you day by day,
And never did you point the way.

You knew the Lord in truth and glory,
But never did you tell the story.
My knowledge then was very dim;
You could have led me safe to him.

Though we lived together here on earth,
You never told me of the second birth.
And now I stand this day condemned,
Because you failed to mention Him.

You taught me many things, that's true;
I called you "friend," and trusted you.
But I learn now that it's too late,
And you could have kept me from this fate.

We walked by day, and talked by night,
And yet you showed me not the Light.
You let me live, and love, and die,
You knew I'd never live on high.

Yes, I called you "friend" in life,
And trusted you through joy and strife.
And yet, on coming to this dreadful end
I cannot now call you "My Friend."

"The Price of a Movie"

By Zola Levitt

In recent days I did a series of speaking engagements in Utah, Colorado and Texas. I noticed a uniform problem wherever I appeared — reasonably good crowds came out, but they did not adequately support the organizations who sponsored me. As a result, a kind person behind the scenes picked up the slack by paying the bills. If it had not been for that selfless one's willingness to contribute with no applause, it would have to be explained to airlines and hotels that because we are Christians we could not meet our expenses.

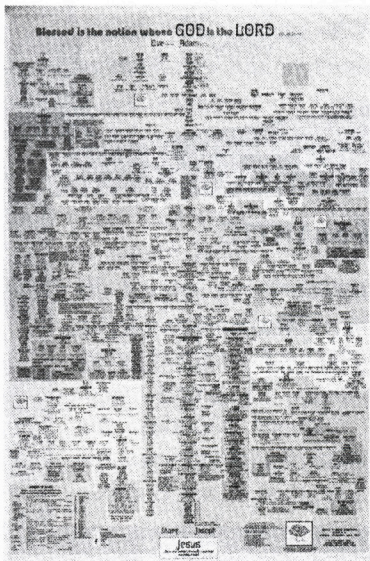

Acts 2:44-45 states that we believers have all things in common and we are to share one another's burdens.

Christians, in general, do not appropriately support their own causes. Churches and ministries keep on going because they are principally underwritten by those with the gift of giving who quietly keep the bills paid. Any other enterprise would collapse under such a system. As a matter of fact, that way of doing things runs contrary to Scripture. Acts 2:44-45 states that we believers have all things in common and we are to share one another's burdens according to what we have. Obviously, people in this world have different means and different capabilities to lend support to God's work. On the other hand, there is truly no excuse for Christian people to participate in a ministry and then never chip in to hold it together. I don't know of any restaurant where you can be fed without paying.

In reality, our particular ministry doesn't need that much per-viewer support to survive. We are extremely efficient, operating this entire international outreach with a dozen workers in rented office space. We have always done a good job with our television programs, our study materials and our music. People have been greatly

ADAM & EVE GENEALOGY CHART

Many believers, in January, start with Genesis in their one-year plan to read the entire Bible. It can be perplexing to understand who exactly begot whom.

Tracing lineage from Adam to Jesus, the Adam & Eve Genealogy Chart is a full color, laminated chart that will increase your knowledge of the biblical personalities' genealogy. Shipped in a protective corrugated tube, it measures 38" x 25" and is suitable for framing. This is truly the most complete Bible genealogy we have ever seen. Please order from page 11.

OUR TRAVEL MANAGER

Karen Smith has been with us on three of our tours and it seems she has mastered her methods of making our pilgrims feel at home when previewing the thousand-year Kingdom. (Thanks for the very favorable tour evaluations!) Karen is an upbeat believer who is consistently ready to attack the most challenging tasks. We are thankful for her energy and dedication.

COLUMBUS WAS A MESSIANIC BELIEVER!

Christopher Columbus's given name was Colon, which is Hebraic in origin, and he was a believer in Christ. His father was a weaver, one of the few trades open to Jews of that period. He spoke old Castilian, the language spoken by refugee Jews from Catalonia who emigrated to Italy. Columbus often made reference to Jerusalem, the Hebrew Bible, Moses, David, Abraham, Isaac and Sarah. He even computed the age of the world by reference to the biblical Jewish calendar, not the Roman one.

NO MORE LLX

Initially created to chronicle the Persian Gulf War, the Levitt Letter Extra has continued to provide, by first class mail, Zola's biblical insights right on through the election. LLX subscription revenue has helped subsidize our regular newsletters and TV airtime, and we are truly grateful to its subscribers. We may resume its publication at a later date.

Besides making refunds on any subscriptions extending into '93, we will be closing out the LLX Book - The First Year, the compilation of the first 24 LLX's at the bargain price of $5 plus shipping. These 24 flash newsletters chronicle one of the most turbulent periods since our ministry's inception, and you're welcome to order it from page 11 while supplies last.

ZOLA'S CALL FROM JERUSALEM!

What a way to hear that you're going to Israel with Zola! For tours purchased as gifts, Zola will call on Christmas morning from our December tour to announce the good news! Another choice: A New Year's Day call from Zola to your loved one who will be walking where Jesus walked in 1993. What a way to start the year!

20% ANTI-SEMITIC

About one in five Americans — nearly 40 million people — hold strongly anti-Semitic views, but that number represents a decrease of almost 10 percent over 25 years ago. According to a study released Monday, the survey of 1,101 Americans was conducted for the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

blessed. Many have rededicated their lives and, most heartening of all, many have come to Christ through our efforts. We have survived on national television, created all of our own products and successfully served beside some of the largest ministry organizations in the world.

What we need at this ministry is for everyone who partakes of it to contribute to it. The size of your contribution does not matter. The biblical principal requiring each believer to give according to his capability would be perfectly fine if everyone would participate. It's interesting to consider that if everyone in an averaged-size church would simply give the price of a movie as an offering when I speak there, there would be three times the amount necessary to cover expenses. And let's face it — the movie people put their booth out front and you must pay before seeing what you get. At least in church your gift is voluntary and you know what you are receiving.

If every person who watched only one of our programs sent in the price of a movie, we would have enough money to produce brand new location programs for the next fifteen years with no further contributions being required!

The end of the year is coming and this is truly the season when we learn just how much harvesting in the Lord's fields you expect of us. It's entirely up to you! This ministry has virtually no reserve funds and has always operated on your financial support. I was asked once if I wore a Rolex watch — I was able to say that, like our ministry itself, I gladly make do with less (my Casio watch cost $29.95). There is no waste here. Those of you who have been with us a long time certainly realize that we manage our money carefully and we tell the truth. Our financial statements are, of course, available to all and we welcome your visits to our offices.

Would you kindly do that which is right and what the Lord would lead you to do toward this ministry which has served you faithfully all year? The beautiful new programs in the series "Israel: By Divine Right!" have obviously set us back financially, and we certainly need help right now. Your substantial year-end gifts will us that we can plan for more location programs in 1993.

Can you send us the price of a movie? Is each of our programs that you have watched in 1992 worth the price of a movie? I have always told you straight forwardly when our ministry did not need the money — people have marveled over the fact that occasionally I have advised our viewers to give their money to some other ministry. Well, presently we have real needs and we need help. Thank you for putting us in your prayers.

May the celebration of our Lord and Savior's birth bring you great joy and gladness!

programs in the history of mass media, and I would like them to air on the major networks. That may be a dream for now, but we're currently reaching a loyal core audience which is enabling a lot of channel hoppers to tune in to Bible teaching on location from Israel.

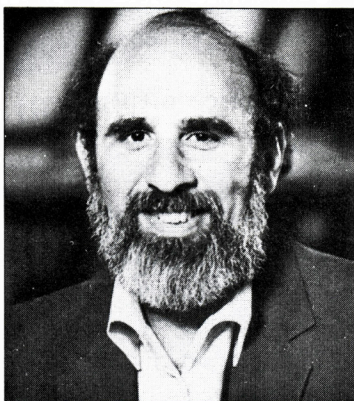

Our programs are seen by people in old folks' homes, prisons, hospitals, fire stations and churches. We've shipped teaching materials to every state in the union, and to other countries, including Israel. After thirteen years, it's possible that we've distributed over a million items glorifying God. And that excludes our million newsletters per year!

In a nutshell, this ministry has few treasures on this earth. But what we're doing on His behalf, and your behalf, is stowing away awesome treasures in the Kingdom to come (Matt. 6:21).

Recently, our receptionist Elaine got a new miniature headset that makes her look like an AT & T operator. When she gets up, she has to "unplug herself" by disconnecting what looks like an umbilical cord. Today she had a little sign on the cord saying, "In the event of the Rapture, please disconnect!"

P.S. For a free copy of our independently audited financial statements, please write to our bookkeeper Pat's attention.

A NOTE FROM ZOLA

Dear Friends,

In the year-end newsletter we try to give you reports on the “state of the ministry.” You are, after all, the rightful owners of this outreach and what we do with your gifts ultimately accrues to your account in heaven. So, I will report on our various departments as of the end of a complex and challenging year.

Television — you are presently seeing our major endeavor, the fruits of our location taping on our “Feasts of Tabernacle” tour. I sincerely think the tour crew outdid themselves on the “Israel: By Divine Right” series, and I am greatly heartened by all of your kind thoughts and comments. You have realized that this was a crucial year for Israel, and I feel that we have very ably defended the Land of the Kingdom. Thank you for your generosity on that project; as the cover article explains, the need for your support for it continues.

Publications — we have brought out several new items especially in connection with the various television series’. We have increased the size of the monthly newsletter. We will discontinue the “Levitt Letter Extra” which served to comment on the events from the Persian Gulf War through the presidential election.

Music — we produced a new fully-orchestrated album of songs with lyrics to accompany the “Israel: By Divine Right” television series and two previous instrumental albums. Obviously, when we create our own music we not only save royalty fees, but we can tailor it to exactly fit the message of our programs.

Holy Land Tours — our tour department escorted four well-attended tours to Israel, Greece, Egypt and Turkey in 1992, culminating with our “Three Feasts” fall tour and our “Chanukah/Christmas” tour. In 1993 we plan to continue this emphasis on the biblical feasts with a Passover tour in mid-April. This may be more convenient for some of our pilgrims who have gone on our March and June tours in the past. We will also include the Greek cruise and mainland option in April.

In our less public endeavors — praying for those who write in for prayer, answering letters and ministering to the needs of our large flock — we have steadily been at our posts. It is difficult for us to personally deal with every letter and every question and still be good stewards of the Lord’s time and funds, but we make our best effort all the same.

Each year in the last newsletter I extend my own personal, heartfelt thanks to all of you who have supported this ministry. I love what I do and truly you make it all happen. I am a minister and teacher and I could do things for the Lord other than what I am doing. But from me to you, I am grateful that you allow me to do this particular work. I do hope that you will be able to support us generously at year’s end, and I look forward to serving you for our Lord until the hour He comes. Maranatha!

A Look at The Book

By Steve Ger

The following is the first half of a two-part series about Christ in the book of Colossians. Last month we examined Paul's strategies for ministry. This month we will focus on one of Paul's essential lessons — his teaching on the nature of Jesus Christ in his letter to the Colossian believers.

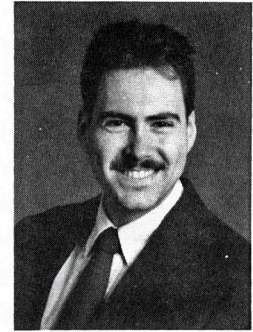

As the "theologian-in-residence" here at Zola Levitt Ministries, I get a host of phone calls and letters each week from people who have questions about the Bible, Jewish customs, Israel, etc. In answering these questions I have noticed that a considerable amount of people hold to strange beliefs. A great many of these problematic doctrines people hold can be traced back to a misunderstanding or even ignorance of what Scripture teaches concerning the Messiah. Often I refer them to Paul's letter to the Colossians to restore sound doctrine, for it is in this book that Paul presents us with some of the most basic essentials concerning Jesus Christ.

Paul wastes no words as he levels the weapon of truth at his target.

Paul wrote the letter to the believers at Colosse to refute a heresy (an aberrant teaching) which had arisen which deprecated Christ and elevated human philosophy. The theme of the letter is the complete sufficiency of Christ as contrasted with the emptiness of mere human wisdom. Paul wastes no words as he levels the weapon of truth at his target.

Beginning in Colossians 1:15-29, Paul provides a veritable treasure trove of doctrinal gems. One truth that he stresses here is the absolute preeminence of the person of Christ. Jesus is the reflection of God, the absolute representation (image) and manifestation of God the Father. In Christ the invisible God becomes visible (1:15). As such he is sovereign over all creation.

Christ is the firstborn over all — not first to be created, as some false teachers claimed, but rather preeminent and preexistent. He is the Creator of all and did not (absurdly) create Himself. Christ has no peer; absolutely everything in the entire universe was created by His design and command. He is the architect and builder of creation and all things came into being by His decision, through his power and for His purpose. Furthermore, He is the sustainer — the bonding strength in which all things hold together. Therefore, He is before all things (1:17).

Having established that Christ is Lord over all creation, Paul goes on to relate Christ's supremacy over the Church. He is the head of the church, the authority and guide for His body. He is the sovereign preeminent One by divine right and divine work since He is the firstborn (first fruits) from the dead, never again to die (1:18). Through the divine fullness indwelling Him (the totality of God with all powers and attributes) Christ has reconciled God and the world, or rather, the world to God through the cross. Paul does not mean that all people are now saved, but that it is now possible for harmony to be restored between man and his Maker. His death has dealt with both sin and guilt.

Next month we will continue to explore this reconciliation Christ has established in the conclusion this series.

Letters to Zola

Dear Zola,

Many people I know show much interest in your material even when they won't consider reading a regular Christian publication. Your teaching and writing is extremely annointed! My spiritual eyes are opened as I hear the Old Testament blending in with the New as I listen to you...especially regarding the Passover and all the feasts.

Anyway, my little eight-year-old grandson is in terrible bondage and fear concerning UFOs. I had this same fear as a child and still to this day will not go camping. It is awful to be bound up to such fear of the enemy. I bought a publication on this in a Christian bookstore, but it was too deep for even me to understand. I gave your tape to a friend in Tulsa...so, I would like to have another one for my grandson. You explained it so well in "Encounters with UFO's."

ZOLA, YOU ARE GOING STRAIGHT TO HELL!

Last month Mr. Howard B. of North Hollywood wrote the following letter to Zola—

Zola—

You are an apostate pig! You and your ministry are garbage! You are going straight to Gehenna [hell] for converting Jews to idolatry.

I challenge you to answer the enclosed article on resurrection, you meshumed [traitor], mumzer [illigitimate one, bastard]. Give me some answers!

Haven't you heard of the Torah Codes? These are scientifically correct and encoded by Hashem [God, lit. "The Name"]. Belief in Jesus is idolatry. Your "savior" is sending you to hell. I will pray to Hashem that you are banned from Israel forever!

Howard enclosed a Jews for Judaism article entitled, The Resurrection: What is the Evidence? It bears mentioning that the Jews for Judaism logo includes the statement, "We're on your side." In bold print, the article quotes I Corinthians 15:17: "And if Christ be not raised, your faith is in vain, ye are yet in your sins!"

Dear Howard,

Fortunately, Christ was raised on the third day. This is beautifully portrayed during the third cup of wine at the Jewish Feast of Passover. The middle of three pieces of matzah that has been wrapped and hidden away is brought back to the Passover table. For more on how the Jewish Feast of Passover celebrates our Messiah, please order the Passover study booklet from page 11.

Your article claims that the New Testament offers the only evidence that Jesus rose from the dead. That may have been true before the release of the Dead Sea Scrolls. We now, however, have secular corroboration of Jesus historicity and many details of his ministry and death. And many more translations will follow. Did you see our Secrets of the Dead Sea Scrolls series?

The problem with witnessing to many Jews is that they haven't read the Old Testament very well. For that reason, they are unable to see that New Testament is clearly a fulfillment of the prophecy of the Old.

Howard, you can't live up to the 613 standards of the Old Testament. No one can — especially in the face of the New Covenant. If you'll confess your sins to God and accept the Messiah as your final atonement, you will feel the love of God for which you hunger.

Fed up with Christian waffling about Israel, Dr. Thomas McCall, our consulting theologian, conceived the following petition which enumerates the best scriptural arguments for worldwide support of Israel. If you agree and are willing to stand up and be counted, please sign below. As you do, read Gen. 12:3.

CHRISTIANS FOR ISRAEL PETITION

WHEREAS we are evangelical believers in the Word of God, who look forward to the imminent return of the Lord Jesus Christ for His Church before the Tribulation, and to the subsequent millennial reign of Christ upon the earth, during which we shall reign with Him from Israel's capital, Jerusalem, and

WHEREAS we believe that the Lord's ultimate plan for Israel is to restore His nation to Himself for salvation and millennial blessing at the Second Coming of Christ, and

WHEREAS we believe that the Lord's intermediate plan is for Israel to be in the Land in unbelief at the beginning of the Tribulation prior to Christ's return to the earth in order to fulfill many prophecies, including the regathering of the Dry Bones, the confirming of the treaty with the Antichrist, the rebuilding and desecration of the Temple, the War of Armageddon, and the national conversion to Christ of the Jewish people who survive the Great Tribulation to its conclusion, and

WHEREAS through the devastating Holocaust and the resulting Zionist movement, over four million Jewish people have returned to the Land (more than ever before during Israel's 4,000-year history), and recreated the state of Israel in fulfillment of the early stages of the Dry Bones prophecy of Ezekiel (37:7-10), and

WHEREAS God has seen fit to bring about the beginning of this final restoration during the Church Age before the Rapture of the Church, and

WHEREAS there are currently thousands of Jewish believers in Christ in Israel along with many Arab and other Gentile believers constituting the evangelical churches in Israel, and

WHEREAS the unique claim of the Jewish people to the Land of Israel is not primarily based on concepts of international law, nor on their ancient heritage in the Land which is being constantly verified through archaeological discoveries, but on the higher law of the Word and Promise of God, who has repeatedly sworn that He has given the Land forever to the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and

WHEREAS the revived state of Israel has had to defend itself many times against the onslaughts of its neighbors and the nations of the world militarily, economically and politically, and

WHEREAS God through Moses and many Old Testament prophets has promised that He will bless or curse Abraham and his descendants, and Christ has prophesied that His future judgment of the Gentiles will be based on how they have treated the least of His brethren, and

WHEREAS the Scriptures hold up as role models for the Gentiles Rahab, who demonstrated by her actions her belief that God had given the Land she occupied to Israel; and King Cyrus, outside the Land, who believed that the God of Heaven directed him to recognize and assist the Jewish people's right to return to the Land in his time, and

WHEREAS the land in dispute between Israel and its neighbors is well within the boundaries specified by God as part of the Promised Land which He has covenanted forever to give to Israel, and

WHEREAS God has also greatly blessed the Arabs, who are descendants of Abraham through Ishmael, with vast lands and great oil reserves, and we believe God will surely bless the Arabs and the other nations who welcome and cooperate with Israel, and

WHEREAS, because of the above, we believe that our present position as Christians in these matters should be to support Israel as prophecy unfolds regarding the Promised Land,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT WE PETITION ALL NATIONS TO SUPPORT ISRAEL IN ITS ONGOING RESTORATION TO THE PROMISED LAND.

HEBREW LESSON

At the conclusion of Shabbat, it is a mitzvah to recite Havdalah. The service includes four blessings, one of which is over wine.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה, יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ, מֶלֶךְ
הָעוֹלָם, בּוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הַגֶּפֶן.

Ba-ruch' a-ta', A-do-nai' E-lo-hei'-nu, me'-lech ha-o-lam', bo-re' pree ha-ga'-fen.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

[Note: As many of you noticed, the Hebrew letters in the November issue were upside down. This was an unfortunate mistake made by our printer who does not speak Hebrew.]

ISRAEL: BY DIVINE RIGHT! MUSIC

The compelling ten-program Israel: By Divine Right! television series and transcript won't be available until the end of January, but the music cassettes are being duplicated as we're going to press
with this newsletter.
Thanks to divine inspiration and your loyal stewardship, this album has a full orchestra, talented singers and an oboe solo by Zola. Please order from page 11.
