

Somalia

By Zola Levitt

The situation in Somalia is not precisely a sign of the end, except in regard to the "betrayal and offense" of Matthew 24:10. A look at the map accompanying this article will show that this otherwise unimportant nation possesses an unfortunate location. Gifted with a long seacoast and good flying and sailing weather, it happens to be located just south of the most sensitive areas of the very troubled Middle East.

Have we taken over a sovereign nation just to keep an eye on our oil supplies?

---

Last winter the Levitt Letter predicted that we were never going to leave Somalia. At that time President Bush had announced a brief mission based on feeding some hungry people. Since then we have managed to create the sort of complications that require us to stay around at length. In the meanwhile, we are establishing a veritable military base with easy access to Saudi Arabia, Egypt, Israel, the Arab Emirates and the Persian Gulf nations of Iraq and Iran.

Could it be that we have just taken for ourselves a Middle Eastern nation in order to keep an eye on the vast Persian Gulf oil fields and the inevitable conflicts surrounding our ally, Israel? Since the Israelis and the Arabs are notably sensitive about giving up land, we had to go to the nearest "easy move-in." Note that when the carrier Kitty Hawk attacked Baghdad a few months ago, it departed from Somalia.

With all the smoke screen arguments about what our mission is and how right or wrong we are to be pursuing it, it seems that no one has troubled to glance at a map, where our real reason for this occupation is obvious. Just as we kept large contingents of troops in the Philippines to keep an eye on Asia, and in Germany to keep an eye on Europe, we are now having to keep an eye on our oil supplies.

Prophetically, all this action right in the center of God's theater of operations helps to prepare the Tribulation Period situation. The great battle of Armageddon itself, marking the end of the age, is characterized by the massive armies of the Far East (Rev. 9:16) marching against the forces of the Antichrist in the Middle East. Could this final ultimate conflagration, described in Scripture as the most wretched excess of evil mankind, be just another oil field war on the grandest of scales?

If it is, the United States is ready in every way but spiritually.

"MINE EYES HAVE SEEN" Zola's After Christmas Musical

In this "after Christmas musical," Zola narrates the moving story of Simeon, the aged but faithful servant who waited to see the Messiah face to face. This beautifully staged half-hour in period costumes will have you singing along with Simeon and Anna about the arrival of the King of Kings, the Holy one of Israel. Please see Page 12 to order both the videocassette and music tape.

“MESSIAH ACCORDING TO ISALAH” - Part I

Due to the overwhelmingly favorable response we received on the last series in this column on the minor prophets, it seems appropriate to once again delve into the vast theological wealth of the prophets. This month, we begin a series based on the writings of the “prince of prophets,” Isaiah, specifically what we can glean from his message concerning the Messiah. Since Isaiah is a vast and profound book, in this series we will just be touching upon some of his great Messianic themes and insights. To probe more deeply into this prophetic masterpiece would keep this series going indefinitely!

*“God with us” -- “Immanuel” in Hebrew.
Jesus was the ultimate Immanuel,
“God with us.”*

Isaiah, whose name means “the Lord saves,” lived during the time of the divided kingdom (upon Solomon’s death, his kingdom split into Israel and Judah). Isaiah spent most of his ministry in Jerusalem in the southern kingdom of Judah, approximately 700 years before Christ. During his ministry the northern kingdom of Israel was conquered by Assyria, and much of Isaiah’s message concerns a warning to Judah that the same fate awaited it if the nation did not repent. Babylon would be the nation to lead Judah into this promised captivity.

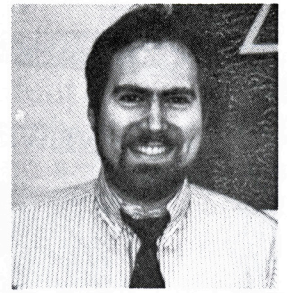

However, the message of Isaiah does not only contain assurances of judgment and exile. The prophet is equally concerned with the promise of God’s restoration and compassion. Isaiah paints a portrait of an age of peace and righteousness, not just for Israel or Judah, but throughout the whole earth. This “messianic age” will be brought about by God’s unique ruler, the Messiah. It is to what the prophet tells us about this ruler that we will turn our attention.

From Isaiah’s point of view, the Messiah was yet to come. Isaiah doesn’t specifically tell his contemporary readers/listeners that in seven hundred years they could expect a carpenter from Nazareth to be the Messiah, but the information he provides is graphic enough for the careful and expectant watcher to recognize the promised ruler when He did come.

“Messiah” is an English transliteration of a Hebrew word which means “anointed one.” “Messiah” and “Christ” have identical meanings. (The word “Christ” is the English transliteration of the Greek word for Messiah. Another way of referring to “Jesus Christ” is “Jesus, the Messiah” or “Jesus, the Anointed One.”) Throughout his writings, Isaiah depicts a multifaceted, several-dimensional mosaic of the coming Messiah’s qualities. The prophet has literally saturated his work with references to Messiah. One has only to read through any few chapters to confirm this fact. We will briefly survey some of the major characteristics Isaiah furnishes.

☆ ZOLA'S BULLETIN BOARD ☆

OUR NEWEST MAIL CLERK

We're delighted to welcome Diana on board, shown here with her husband Joel. She attended the Beth Sar Shalom congregation with Zola and Mark roughly twenty years ago! Now she's taking over Cindi's credit card order processing.

If you call our office, 214-690-1874, to order with your credit card, you'll be surprised at how quickly Diana has mastered her mission.

SMOOTH SLEDDING IN BETHLEHEM

Even if it doesn't snow in December, where else would you rather be than the birthplace of our Lord? It's less expensive to make your Israel pilgrimage in December than at any other time of year — and it's cooler there too! Departing from New York on Sunday, December 12, you can choose between returning on either the 21st or the 26th. Please call 1-800-WONDERS or write to

TELEVISION UPDATE

In Dallas, beginning November 16, we will be airing each Tuesday evening at 9:30 on Channel KMPX-15. We've discontinued our broadcasts on WACX-55 in Florida, but we're still on several other Florida TV stations.

ZOLA ON RADIO?

We discontinued our "Life Perspectives" broadcasts because we heard from so few listeners—even when we offered some free materials. If you know of a major radio station that would like to have Zola as a guest for a live broadcast, please have them contact Karen at our office. (Karen also schedules Zola's speaking engagements in churches around the country.) Unfortunately, our radio experiment came out the way some of our television airtimes have. Our audience has to take seriously the fact that we are totally dependent on their donations. We are thankful to those of you who keep our program on your station by your prayerful support of this ministry.

RUFF ANSWER TO A TOUGH QUESTION

You may have noticed our periodic coverage of a special ministry called the Ruff House. Our friends the Ruffs, an older couple, have taken in some eighty homeless souls and manage to provide them food, shelter, clothing and the Gospel. To help the homeless, please write to:

A LOOK AT THE BOOK

The first clue we are given as to who the Messiah will be and what he will be like is found in 7:14. There is much debate as to how to accurately interpret this verse, whether the woman referred to is a virgin or Isaiah was speaking of a contemporary woman or someone in the far future. However, since it is to be a miraculous sign given by God, I believe this passage teaches that the Messiah will be a human child born of a virgin. Of particular note, this child is to be given the designation, "God with us"—"Immanuel" in Hebrew. Jesus was the ultimate Immanuel, "God with us."

In Isaiah's chapter 9, beginning in verse 2, we are told that people who are in darkness and in the shadow of death will have a great light shine on them. This will be the result of the coming of Messiah, which will bring joy to Israel and salvation to the nations. Many rabbis through the centuries have agreed that this "light" written of is the Messiah. This interpretation is borne out in vs. 6-7, where the following four great qualities of the Messiah are enumerated.

First, it is reiterated that he will be born a child. This affirms his humanity. Second and most strikingly, within the same sentence we are told that he will also somehow be Deity; he is called "mighty God" and "everlasting Father." Isaiah teaches that the coming Messiah will in some way be both God and man.

Third, Messiah will also be King. He is called here "wonderful Counselor, Prince of peace," and we are told that there will be no end to the increase of the government, which will rest upon his shoulders. Isaiah is careful to specify which government is being referring to. It is the government of the united kingdom of Israel and it is David's throne from which Messiah will rule. This is the fourth great quality of Messiah. Indeed, that Messiah is a descendent of David and thereby rightful heir to the covenantal promises to David can be seen in Isaiah 11:1-10. The prophet indicates that Messiah will in some way be the "perfect David" who will rule with the spirit of God, in wisdom, understanding, counsel, strength and the fear of the Lord. He will be a righteous and faithful King who will not only rule Israel but the whole world. The Messianic Kingdom will encompass a world transformed into a paradise on Earth (11:1-10; 55:4).

Having just returned from Israel, I find it exhilarating to review the prophetic message concerning the King who will rule from David's throne in Jerusalem. This month we have focused on a few of the great characteristics of Messiah found in the opening portion of Isaiah's message. Next month we will focus on the Messianic attributes of prophet, priest and servant, and we will conclude with an examination of Isaiah's forecast of Messiah's marvelous accomplishments.

IN THE WILDERNESS

Zola plays his own beautiful piano compositions, which were inspired by the wilderness of Israel. These thirteen songs, featured in The Holy Land Today video series, include the haunting desert melodies A Way in the Wilderness and Streams in the Desert and lively Middle Eastern tunes such as Song of the Bedouin.

A NOTE FROM ZOLA

Dear Friends,

First of all, thank you sincerely for your prayers. I can't tell you how much better I am feeling since I requested your intercession a month ago.

I led our Fall Festival Tour and felt fine the whole time and I am looking forward to our December 12th - 21st or 26th Christmas in Bethlehem Tour. We were able to film since the crew accompanied us, and you will shortly be seeing our new series called Signs of the End. These programs will, of necessity, interrupt our Tell It On the Mountains series because they deal with timely topics, especially the peace agreement. We were able to interview the mayor of Jericho, many outspoken personalities on the streets of Israel and the West Bank and some very determined Jewish settlers. Be sure to stay tuned as we air these programs intermittently.

I have a personal request for those of you who like our music. The price of producing original music continues to rise like everything else these days. If we are to continue bringing you new albums, I have to ask you to please purchase them. So many of you write to say that you enjoy hearing the music along with the TV program; surely a cassette tape for your home or car would be a nice thing to have or to give to someone. The music is Scriptural and intended as a witness, and frankly it would make my heart glad if you would allow me to minister to more people this way. Thanks.

As we near our fifteenth anniversary, we rely on you more and more. In the past tightening our belt in one place would supply funding for another, and we would often have to rob Isaac to pay Jacob. As things are now, however, the Lord has seen fit to expand our outreach such that each separate ministry totally depends on Him and His willing people for its support. Our pledge to you is to cover Israel and the End Times, and that often makes us jump and run even in the middle of a new series. The expenses for Tell It On the Mountains were not even met when we had to film Signs of the End, and we are now caught in a proverbial "double bind." If we don't receive very significant year-end gifts, we will not be able to make new programming in 1994. That hurts, because we are in the most dramatic times of modern Israel's existence!

Year-end giving of course grants you the maximum tax deduction on your money and also serves our purposes very well. I have a feeling that spring will bring many new prophetic developments in a world that is conforming very closely to what Scripture has foretold. In plain words we truly need your prayers and your support more than ever before and for the best of all causes.

If you want to check the situation in Israel for yourself, our next tour will depart March 6, 1994. We will offer our Dead Sea/Eilat extension along with our regular itinerary. Please let us know how you like the new programs, and as the year ends, don't forget to "pray for the peace of Jerusalem!"

Letters to Zola

We have been steadily offering the $10 "Skip Johnson Video" for those who would find comfort in this remarkable testimony of a believer suffering with terminal cancer. We received the following letter from Skip's mother recently:

Dear Zola, Mark and Friends,

You have probably heard from Thurman by now that my beloved son, Skip, has been called to be with "Our Lord."

I missed his departure by about ten minutes. Linda had taken him to the hospital as he wasn't doing too well. She said that he was very restless and had a hard time breathing. He did pass on very peacefully.

He wanted to go. He said it so many times. I prayed for "Our Father" to be merciful and receive him unto "Him." The Lord has been so good to us. He gave us time to go, do and see what Skip wanted. Dallas was on that list too, to see and sup with you.

We got to Minneapolis twice to see Skip's Uncle Roy, who is bedridden with M.S. Skip and his wife, Linda, had one week in Hawaii. But the dream of his lifetime was to be in the Holy Land. Your TLC was so appreciated.

Skip left us on July 3rd at approximately 11:30 P.M. on Shabbat. Only the family will be at the graveside service. He will be buried near his father in Fair Oaks. A memorial service will be held in his brand-new church this Saturday at 4:00 P.M.

That was another goal. The church was finished and had the first services June 13th. He was well enough to go. Just one blessing after another.

Thank you for your friendship and sharing your knowledge of God.

God be with you,

Marie

JEWISH HERITAGE CALENDAR

It's Cheshvan, the second month of the year 5754. Beautiful and useful, this lovely Jewish calendar provides the dates of all the biblical feasts and sabbaths. Aside from your learning the names of the months, the holy days and all the rest through the English phonetics as in our monthly Hebrew Lesson, our calendar will acquaint you with many fascinating artifacts and their stories. Please order from Page 11.

LETTERS...

Dear Brother Zola,

Hope you do remain on the Radio Air on Life's Perspectives! Thursday's Program showed how people are listening, by so many questions asked by them.

More than likely, most hadn't realized that you ministry sponsored those segments on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays.... They probably thought that they paid you to be on their program! Or maybe others didn't think how, but presumed you would always be there, whenever they tuned in on those nights.

I didn't know that Jericho had 15,000 people or had a mayor. Thanks for the information from the last radio program. May your radio time remain on our air!!

God Bless you and your ministry.

C. D.

[Please see the Bulletin Board announcement regarding the radio program.]

Dear Zola,

I feel so strongly the stress and pain you transmitted to us.

I am sure you know that there are many of us out here in the hinterlands who felt exactly the same when the news broke about the Draft Accord with Israel and the P.L.O. I have felt in my bones, you might say, that this was inevitable, but it was crushing nevertheless to hear of it actually coming about.

I can't praise you enough for the excellent T.V. you bring us. Thank you so much.

God bless.

K.T.K.

Dear Zola,

I must tell you how much your ministry has blessed my family over the past few years that we have had the privilege to watch you on cable TV.

Recently I received and read a copy of Dr. Brown's book from you Our Hands are Stained With Blood. I can't tell you how shocked I was to learn of the history of my "Christian" ancestors. I was filled with sorrow, anger, shame and a host of other emotions as I read of what professing Christians have done in the name of Jesus Christ—to His own kinsmen!

I have several Jewish friends and this book has given me new insight into "where they're coming from." I have also become more acutely aware of anti-Semitic sentiments and comments than ever before.

Thank you for your ministry. We pray for you often as well as the peace of Jerusalem.

In Him,

K.B.

OUR BUDGETARY PIE

We gladly provide our audited financial statements to all who ask. Here's what they reveal about our expenses...

TV airtime:	42%
TV production:	20%
Personnel/Staff:	14%
Postage:	10%
Printing:	9%
Operations, etc.	5%

Even though 14% is surprisingly little to spend on salaries, you would be surprised to see how much of that effort goes toward TV and newsletter production. We love you and we're being very good stewards.

LETTERS...

Dear Zola,

I watch your program on the Family Channel and enjoy it so much. I know, without a doubt, that your teachings concerning the Jews and God's future plans for them are true. I could not love and worship a Father who would break His covenant with His own people; as He is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow, blessing Israel. I pray God blesses you as you attempt to reach your own countrymen.

God bless and keep you,

P.V

Dear Zola,

I have intended to write for so long to let you know what a blessing you have been to us over the years.

We believe you have given us such insight and balance as to the importance of "to the Jew first"! We really miss the lack of teaching in the church today as to how important that truth is.

We are praying for you and your health—as we have for years, but with more focused attention now as to your health.

Maranatha,

J.B.

Dear Zola,

I told my pastor about a problem I have and he suggested I write to you. We are an independent church. I would like to write to and pray for a missionary in Israel to Jews. But I know that it is against the law there. I've checked into several denominations, but I was not surprised when Middle East Missionary field addresses are not listed. I know I want the impossible.

Thank you for anything you can do!!

L.G.

A CHILD IS BORN

Zola discovered, quite by accident, an amazing series of biblical "coincidences." It seems that every one of us, as we develop in the womb, follows the schedule of the seven feasts of Israel that God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai. This half-hour program illustrates the surprising similarities of these two chains of events, each established by God according to His purpose. Please order from Page 11.

TELL IT ON THE MOUNTAINS

Many of you were very touched by the song played during the Calvary program from our Tell It On the Mountains series. Zola wrote the music, and the lyrics in this case were by Charlynn Johns. Here is a complete copy of the lyrics of this unusual view of the sacrifice of our Lord as seen by the thief who hung there beside Him.

Song of the Thief

*Pray for this thief.
I must hang here in shame.
No chance for me. No one to blame.
Suffering beside me, He weeps on the tree
The King of the Kingdom, dying like me.*

*I see in His tears, in His anguish and pain
The great love it cost my salvation to gain.
"Why has God forsaken me?" He cried out alone.
Then with His last breath, He wept, "It is done."*

*Jesus, remember me when you go home
For my salvation must come from you
alone.
I see in His tears, in His anguish and pain
The great love it cost my salvation to gain.*

*Jesus, remember me when you go home
For my salvation must come from you
alone.*

The Tell It On the Mountains cassette tape contains all the songs of the series and a word sheet for the lyrics. Please order from Page 12. The complete nine-program video series is also available as usual.

Hebrew Lesson

Hebrew is a language of consonants—no vowels. In biblical times, as today, Hebrew was read with no vowels. Can you imagine trying to read the newspaper with no vowels? (Try rdng ths sntnc wtht vwls.) Scribes, carefully preserving the ancient text and pronunciation for future generations, added vowels several centuries after the Bible was finished. Hebrew vowels appear in combination with consonants, usually under the letters. Note how vowels are written in the following familiar passage:

שְׁאֵלוּ שְׁלוֹם יְרוּשָׁלַיִם

Sha-alu Shalom Yerushalaim
Pray for the peace of Jerusalem
(Psalm 122:6a)

Peace in Israel

We realize that some people had held off on making their pilgrimage to Israel because of security concerns, but due to the new peace agreement, we can promise you the most secure and safe journey available in our twenty-year history. And our December tour is a fabulous off-season bargain--the basic tour is reduced to only $1,999, and the Christmas in Bethlehem extension makes it $2,599. A $200 refundable deposit will hold your place! Please call Karen immediately at 214-690-1876 or write to our P.O. Box.
