

Letters to Zola

SPECIAL EDITION

It has been awhile since we shared with our readers some of the letters and newspaper/periodical clippings received by the ministry. Because of our small staff and our goal to be effective stewards of your kind support, it's just impossible to respond personally to all of the mail we receive. Our focus is the production of Zola Levitt Presents and distribution of Zola's teaching materials. And Zola, due to his current health problems, is just unable to respond to individual inquiries as frequently as he would like. We tried to collect a representative sampling of mail we have received recently.

Dear Brother Zola:

I just walked back from the mail box and could not read An Unrepentant Zionist fast enough. I anticipated every word you wrote and can almost say I knew what the next line was going to reveal. The entire article was completely on target. Nothing more needs to be said, but AMEN!!

Zola, if you were officially known as a political activist, yellow journalist, radical university professor, or any other strain of "professional dissenter" by the CIA, NSA, etc., I am sure there would be a price on your head. But I think it is a safe assumption that you are probably considered a "man of the cloth" by most who do not agree with you, and, therefore, your bold and unequivocal refusal to print politically correct editorials is viewed as simply your right to express yourself in our free society. Time is short, however, before the world begins to realize that God's real army, the faithful in Y'shua, is ready to lose everything, including freedom, family and even life to honor God's requirement to bless and support his people. Therefore, the view that you are perhaps "harmless" to the enemy is short-lived.

Knowing full well that we "battle not against flesh and blood but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places," I am acutely aware in my spirit that you are in grave danger. Our arch enemy cannot have your immortal spirit or earthly allegiance, so you are targeted for destruction in more tangible ways. Therefore, I am going to submit to the leading of the Ruach Ha Kodesh and pray specifically for your continued health and safety and will ask others to do so also. A silencing of your voice would please the dark forces, and I feel that it is appropriate to appeal to our Heavenly Father for "extra" protection for those who are on the front lines. Those whose selfish lives are no threat to the unholy spirit are not at risk.

Many who have a public voice throughout the world do not openly question the status quo denial of the plight of God's Chosen People. This includes even some messianic leaders who would rather not ruffle any feathers lest they be questioned regarding their stance or worse yet ignored.

I can at least comprehend their motives and ignorance though. Just a few years ago, I would have asked the naive question, "Don't I see that terrorism comes from both sides?" but not of someone debating Israeli/Arab issues (because I had no interest in or knowledge of such things). I would have posed it to the person who was wisely looking beyond the symptoms of a "bandwagon" social issue or demonstration of violence, and was inquiring about the root cause of the situation. By posing the above question to them, I would have been "admitting," paradoxically, that their wisdom and discernment ranged beyond my ability to comprehend. This is precisely why your article was not accepted by the press. We know that no one can know anything of God except that He reveals it to him! The knowledge, through revelation, of facts as opposed to fiction regarding Jews is simply not a reality for so many because the adversary has succeeded in blinding them. As you know, this includes even Jews, who, like sheep to the slaughter, believe they are "safe" in America and that the world will not let another Holocaust happen. The answer to opening their eyes (or anyone else's) will not come by power (of man's written word), nor by might (of man's spoken word), but by His Spirit. I am in contact with many, including Jews, who are so impressed with the land for peace ideology and who are thankful that Rabin is at the helm so that "all this needless suffering has a better chance to end." I could be frustrated and alienate myself from the whole duped world, but my Heavenly Father has my eyes fixed on His purpose and plans, and in these last days I am seeing that this deception of the masses is coming to the "beginning of the end." I am thankful that you and all those you work with have chosen to obey and speak the truth as you function according to the calling to which He has brought you.

For your obedience, I am sure you and your staff have paid dearly, and will continue to pay. That is why those of us who are being taught truth through your ministry need to pray for your protection, not that we are responsible for the protection. We are powerless to do that. I simply mean that I know our Heavenly Father calls each of us to honor and acknowledge our entire body. (In a healthy body, controlled by a sound mind, no hand would fail to protect the leg from a wild dog coming at it; no eye would ignore the danger ahead as the feet move toward it.) Do you understand what I am saying? If Zola Levitt Ministries is part of the feet that carry the truth, then I and others who are part of the hand, or mouth or eye, are to obey our calling to pray that the feet be protected.

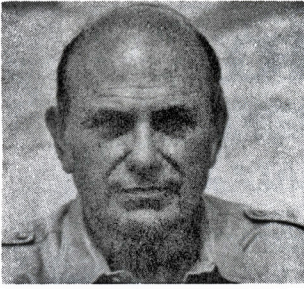

As a messianic Gentile, grafted into the rich Olive Tree of Israel, I am discovering my Jewish roots, and I am devouring as much as I can in the way of books, commentaries, etc. to learn the history and significance of being a Jew. I am saddened to say I am finding out that even in the messianic community there is division regarding agreement on doctrine, teachings, leaders, etc.; but, of course, Scripture foretells all this anyway. I am compelled to keep my eye on the goal, to run the race and not get sidetracked.

Thank you for sharing with me every month so that my knowledge of the Holy One of Israel and His plan for the redemption of all mankind through the Tribe of Judah is increased. May God richly bless you, your family and all your staff.

In Y'shua's Name,

M J Greene

THE CENTER OF DIVINE HISTORY

Part II

By Thomas S. McCall, Th.D.

Zionism - The Primary Vehicle of Restoration Out of the Dispersion

The primary tool God has used to bring about the restoration of Israel is the movement of Zionism. Zionism is the religious, sociological and political movement that promotes the return of the Jewish people to the Land of Israel. There is something in the breast of most, if not all, Jewish people that is not complete outside the Promised Land:

How shall we sing the Lord's song in a foreign land? If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy (Psalms 137:4-6).

This attraction has been intact since the Dispersion began with the Destruction of the Second Temple by the Romans in A.D. 70, shortly after Christ's first coming. The attraction, however, has been suppressed all these centuries by the reality of Jerusalem's subjugation. As our Lord predicted, Jerusalem has been "trodden under the feet of the Gentiles" all during this time.

The Treading of Jerusalem by the Gentiles

First it was the Romans who trod down Jerusalem, then the Byzantines, then the Moslems under the auspices of the Arabs, Mamelukes or the Turks. There were also the European Crusaders, who controlled Jerusalem for 100 years, and some other parts of the Biblical Lands for another 100 years. For most of this 19-century-long period, though, the Land has been under some type of Moslem control. Furthermore, the Moslems have firmly planted the Dome of the Rock and the Al Aksa Mosque on the Temple Mount overlooking Jerusalem.

The Jewish Dream of a Restored Israel

Throughout the Dispersion, there have always been some Jewish people living in the Land. Mostly they lived in Galilee, but sometimes they were able to get to the remaining shrine of their revered Temple Mount, the Western Wall in Jerusalem. There was always the religious conviction that the Jews would ultimately return to the Land "en masse" in the Days of the Messiah. Maimonides and other famous rabbis fostered this teaching. They had the firm belief that when the Messiah comes, there will be universal peace.

There were a few aborted and short-lived attempts at migration. For instance, many Jews attempted to return to Jerusalem during the reign of Emperor Julian the Apostate (4th Century) and at the time of Sabbatai Zvi (17th Century). However, there was no serious

As our Lord predicted, Jerusalem has been "trodden under the feet of the Gentiles"...

movement back to Israel until the Zionists began their organizing movements in the latter half of the 19th Century. In the 20th Century, Zionism has resulted in more than million of the world's 15 million Jews now living in the Promised Land!

What Is Zionism?

As Israel is unique among the nations, so Zionism is unique among movements. It has many facets and is complex. The encyclopedia defines Zionism as "a movement aimed at establishing a national Jewish state in Palestine, the ancient Jewish homeland" (World Book Encyclopedia, 1969, Vol. 20, p. 499).

ZOLA'S BULLETIN BOARD

A HOLD ON THE ROCK

Some of you kindly called our attention to our answering service's rock music on hold. Good news: They're now playing Zola's music on hold for all of their clients! They're also accepting Discover cards as well as MasterCard and Visa. Thanks for the good suggestions. Besides our 24-hour 1-800-WONDERS order/donation message center, you are welcome to call our office at (214) 690-1874 Monday - Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Central Time.

10:00 PM IN DALLAS

We've upgraded our Channel 39 airtime for Zola Levitt Presents in the D-FW metroplex. Beginning June 19, please tune us in at 10:00 on Sunday evenings.

MESSIANIC COMMUNITY CENTER

Thanks for your interest in the Messianic congregation we considered founding in the Dallas area. Between limited personnel, difficulty finding a suitable location and the resurgence of Zola's heart trouble, we concluded God was signalling us not to over-diversify. By the way, there are currently two Messianic congregations in Dallas (Adat Shalom and Baruch Ha Shem) and one in Ft. Worth (Beth Yeshua).

NO MONTHLY TAPES

We recently offered a monthly subscription to audiocassettes with the sound tracks of our Zola Levitt Presents TV programs. We are sorry to say we've had too few responses to proceed. Since our videocassettes are reasonably priced and offer magnificent footage from the Holy Land, we believe most of you have decided to limit your audiocassette orders to Zola's teaching and music tapes. In addition to the teaching audio cassettes listed on page 11, you may appreciate knowing that each of our Institute courses comes with two.

CHELATION FOR ZOLA

Many of you have urged Zola to use Chelation therapy to conquer his arteriosclerosis. Fortunately he's already been taking antioxidants, also called oral chelation. His alternative medicine practitioner, Dr. Donald Whitaker, who's taken intravenous chelation himself, will soon administer some treatments for Zola. Zola's surgeon is quite impressed with the results of the oral chelation, and we're anticipating an increased rate of progress — especially with your continued prayer. Thanks!

JETS, SHIPS & MOTOR COACHES

Fly to the Middle East, cruise the Greek Islands and tour the Holy Land's biblical sites. And, best of all, walk where Jesus walked. Our $3,999 16-day Grand tour, complete with the Mediterranean cruise, departs from New York on September 6, and our $2,699 10-day Israel tour on the 12th. Both will return on the 21st. Please call Karen at (214) 690-1876 or 1-800-WONDERS (966-3377) or send now for your color brochure.

A NOTE FROM ZOLA

Dear Friends,

Happy Birthday to you and yours! I refer of course to Pentecost, the birthday of the Church which has just occurred as I dictate this letter. My Pentecost was very unusual this year since I was invited to a small church in Humble, Texas, which honors Israel in very meaningful ways, singing Hebrew songs and presenting authentic Israeli dancing. I was very gratified to tell the story of Peter's mighty sermon in Acts II to that particular congregation.

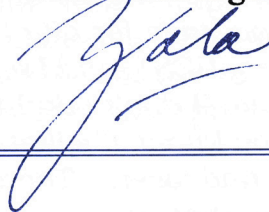

The church was so small that the pastor elected to hold an outdoor service on the front lawn — very appropriate to this harvest festival — and a speaker's stand and chairs were set out in plain view of the highway. I had the impression that some people drifted in, and during my teaching some young men in a speeding pickup truck shouted, "I believe!" as they roared around a curb on two wheels past our service. "Help me thou mine unbelief!" I shouted back. But, anyway, we were a witness.

The world saw us where we worshipped but I wonder if the church really did. Pentecost Sunday had dawned with a rainstorm and as our 2:00 p.m. service approached, there was some nervousness about the weather. The pastor made a call to five different churches and asked if we might retreat to any of their auditoriums with our audience if latter rains came. In each case, he was turned down. One associate pastor said, Of course not, "Judaism and Christianity don't mix." Rather like at the Inn in Bethlehem, there was no room for the Believers in any of those churches in Humble, Texas.

It struck me that if Christianity and Judaism don't mix, Peter himself wouldn't have been able to preach in those churches on Pentecost Sunday, and I wonder if our Lord, the King of the Jews, has ever been there. We've come a long way since "the apostles and brethren that were in Judæa, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God" (Acts 11:1). When those church fathers, all Jewish of course, as were the 3,000 Jews saved on the Jewish holiday of Pentecost at the Jewish Temple, gave some thought that Gentiles had heard testimony of Christ, they reacted very differently from this pastor and "held their peace, and glorified God, saying, 'Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life'" (Acts 11:18). The Gentile Believers were perfectly welcome in their Jewish church.

If the Rapture comes in the next minute, those pastors and their congregations will individually undergo a face-to-face interview with the one who said, "Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me" (II Cor. 5:10; Mt. 25:40). Would they have allowed our Jewish Savior to come in out of the rain?

Your messenger,

Hebrew Lesson

שְׁמַעוּ דְבַר-יְהוָה

* A-do-nai d'var Sheem-oo"

"Hear the word of the Lord ...!"
Jeremiah 2:4

* Remember, Hebrew (and the English transliteration) are read from right to left.

Dear Zola,

It is such a joy to tune you in and see God's love coming through your eyes to us as viewers. I thank G-d for using one such as you to teach us about Messiah's love and to help us better understand our Jewish roots in Christianity. I most certainly was never told that Jesus was a Jew as were his disciples. I am 52 years old and just in the past 10 years I have learned all these things concerning our Messiah.

It always amazes me that you can be chastised for feeling so strongly about Israel and the Jewish people. Do these "Christians" not read and study their Bible?? It's all right there for ALL to see. We talk about the Jews having a veil over their eyes — it seems a lot of so-called Christians have an even thicker veil that is also filled with so much hate. It breaks my heart, and I am ridiculed for my stand and trying to educate my church friends with facts. God must really have a saddened heart over this if my heart cries the way it does.

I just thank you from the bottom of my heart for your hard work for the Lord and such a deep love that you have for all of us. Your programs are the very BEST, and I really get upset when I miss one. I don't mind that you repeat programs. You know, it's just like reading our Bible over and over. There is always something new that we see and understand that we didn't see the first, second, or third time we read it.

Keep up the good work. Try to take care of yourself and stay healthy. I so hope to travel to Israel with you sometime soon. I pray God will continue to bless your ministry and your family. Shalom, B.C.

Dear B.C.,

You have put your finger right on the heart of our ministry. Thank you for your love. When the whole Gentile church finds themselves living in Israel for a thousand years in the Kingdom to come, their veils will fall off at last. — Zola

Dearest Zola,

So much happened on this tour. So much of it life-changing. I can honestly tell you that I'll never be the same person and Christian as a result of the trip.

There were several things that were especially significant to me:

- 1) Seeing the places makes the Bible, history and current events come to life. E.g.:
  - a) The car bombing the other day at Afula. I remember Afula. It was the town where we turned to go down to Tiberias. I see the news differently as a result of being there.
  - b) The parable of the Samaritan on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho will never be the same. I've been there.
  - c) The Sea of Galilee ... I fell in love with it and all that happened on its shores. The picture I've enclosed was taken from the Caesar Hotel in Tiberias at dawn. If you want a larger copy I'll be glad to send it to you. Steve's opening day on the boat on the Sea of Galilee will stay etched in my mind forever. Hearing the calm, feeling the warmth of the sun — seeing where Jesus fed the 5,000 ... I'll never forget it.
- 2) Meeting the Messianic Jews in Jerusalem was the 2nd major highlight. Listening to the brother tell us scripturally why he felt he was more effective in reaching other Jews for Christ by remaining a Jew opened my eyes. Paul's writings make a lot more sense now when he says that he will use all means to reach the lost.
- 3) The Western Wall was the biggest spiritual surprise. I don't know what I expected but it was smaller than I visualized it. I remember our going there, going through metal detectors ...

ISRAEL THE CENTER OF DIVINE HISTORY

It is even more complex than that definition suggests. Zionism is a religious, sociological and political movement that promotes the return of the Jewish people to the Land of Israel.

It is religious, because it is based on Biblical promises and rabbinic interpretations about the restoration of Israel. In the beginning of Zionism, the leaders actually considered the idea of bringing the Jewish people of the world to one of the countries of Africa. The religious leaders soon weighed in with objections that the only country that would appeal universally to the Jewish people would be the ancient land of Israel. Four thousand years of religious and historical associations would attract them from all over the world to the Land of their ancestors. There was also the appeal of the hope of the Messiah. The Biblical prophets had prophesied that the Messiah would one day come, bless the Jewish people in the Land, and bring peace to the whole world.

Zionism is sociological as well. The attraction of the ancient Land alone probably would not be enough to motivate the Jewish people. They would have to leave their homelands, businesses and professions to undertake the rigors of pioneer life in a harsh environment. The founder of Zionism, Theodore Herzl, realized in the Dreyfus trial in Paris in 1894, that anti-Semitism was an active force even in the enlightened country of France. It took ruthless and massive persecution in Russia, Europe and the Arab nations for the Jews to leave and seek a haven in a new Land. Israel became a safe haven to which they could escape from age-old gentile persecution. The motivating persecutions of the 19th Century began with the pogroms of Russia and Eastern Europe and came to a horrendous head in the death camps of the Nazis. Millions of Jewish people became convinced that the only way they could survive was if they had the safety valve of a Land of their own.

Zionism is a political movement as well. Once the Jews returned to the Land of Canaan, who would provide protection for them? Would the nations who had persecuted the Jews for centuries now become their defenders since they were back in the Land? Very unlikely! To be a valid return, there would have to be a new state of Israel, with its own government and army. This is political. Zionism could not be a permanent reality without the political element. It took all the organizational skills of the returned Jewish people to create an economy, a democratic government and a dependable army. To the astonishment of the world, the heretofore peaceful Jews forged a citizen army that has become a military wonder. This small but powerfully skilled army has waged four full-scale wars and many lesser conflicts in a hostile Arab environment that the Russian Communist Empire supported for many years.

All three elements, religious, sociological and political, are important parts of Zionism. It has taken all these to motivate millions of Jews to return to the Land, build up the economy and protect Israel from its many enemies.

In future installments, we will see how great movements in Judaism and Christianity in England, Europe and America have fostered the restoration of Israel. We will also observe how powerful countermovements in Nazism, Communism, Christianity and Mohammedanism in Europe, America, Russia and the Middle East have struggled mightily to keep Israel from either becoming or remaining a nation once again.

THE MESSIAH TV SERIES AND MUSIC TAPE

Produced with Israeli actors on location in the Holy Land, this powerful 12-program series examines the Old Testament prophecies, types and shadows of Messiah and their remarkable fulfillments. Please see page 11 to order.

Abraham & Isaac. Abraham, as a type of God the Father, willingly walks to Mt. Moriah to offer his only son.

Joseph. Rejected by his brothers, sold for silver, and thrown into the pit of death, Joseph ultimately becomes a ruler of the kingdom.

Moses. As a symbol of the coming Messiah, Moses is appointed to save his people, Israel, from bondage and oppression.

David. In his prophetic Psalms, David tells of a coming Messiah, his Son, who will continue a royal reign forever.

Solomon. The wisest of all rulers, Solomon is known as the great Temple builder and king of peace.

Jonah. As a type of Messiah, Jonah is buried three days and nights in the deep, and then raised to new life.

Micah. Micah predicts Bethlehem as the exact location of the Messiah's birth, seven centuries in advance!

Isaiah. Isaiah's remarkably precise predictions of the Messiah's virgin birth, the location of His ministry, His rejection and death.

Jeremiah. Jeremiah prophesied that a New Covenant was coming, as fulfilled in the Messiah, that would replace the Old Covenant.

Daniel. In his most detailed prophecy of "Seventy Weeks," Daniel predicted exactly how the Messiah would fit into world history.

Zechariah. Zechariah predicted the betrayal of our Lord, the scattering of the sheep, and His second coming.

Messiah Music. This panoramic video of Israel, in stereo sound, highlights Zola's songs from the Messiah album. Beautiful pictures, beautiful melodies.

Our Messiah music tape has twelve songs about our Lord in the style of the music of the Holy Land. A truly exhilarating experience. A Jewish believer expresses his love for the Messiah in song! Word sheet included. Please order from page 12.

THE PROPHESED MESSIAH — A special book containing the major prophecies of the Messiah, along with color photos and Holy Land maps from our television series of the same name. It is extremely important that we are able to prove the coming of Messiah from Old Testament Scripture, thus showing objective evidence that our Lord is indeed "The Prophesied Messiah." Please see page 11 to order.

I remember the noise of the drums, tambourines and flutes as people celebrated their Bar Mitzva. I close my eyes and remember the day well — the orthodox Jews praying out loud. The women going one way — the men another, wearing the yarmulke made out of cardboard. All of that was a distraction and I remember going up to the Wall thinking to myself that I'd say a token prayer — since I was there. To my great surprise God was waiting for me there. I remember that I was shocked to feel Him in such a real way. I said, "God, you're here..." After that all I could say was "Father, may your kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven." I felt God's presence not with Jesus as the Lamb — but as the warrior King full of power and might!!

- 4) I love Israel, the land and its people much more now. I understand why there will never be peace until Christ's return.
- 5) The friendships I made will last a lifetime.

M.G.

Dear Zola,

Thought you would like a report on various reactions I get to the pro-Israel collar buttons I ordered from you.

While in the post office, I had a strange encounter with two Arabs. They looked like they were from Jordan or maybe they were Palestinians. Both were young, strong, handsome, young men in their late twenties to early thirties. When they boomed into the post office, everybody in there stood at attention. I momentarily wondered if they were going to take us hostage; only they were not carrying weapons. I sighed with relief and stole a glance in their direction. Their angry eyes were fixed on my collar button — the blue one with the Star of David and the word Shalom. I turned a bit more in their direction so they could see it better and started praying for protection for all of us in there. One of them left the line and positioned himself by the door where I would have to exit. He stood there with his arms crossed against his chest and his legs spread apart — remember how Mr. Clean stood on the bottle of detergent? At this point the postmaster stole a very nervous glance at the new door guard, then at my button. He got the message. I kept praying. The moment of truth arrived. My transaction with the postmaster was complete and I had to leave. I had to walk out that door past the angry Arab. I looked right at his face as I made my approach. When I was two inches from him, he quickly jerked his nose up and turned his face away from me. A snub! I gleefully thanked the Lord that he hadn't physically attacked me and walked on to my car.

Shalom, L.S.

Dear L.S.,

Peace will come in the Middle East when three people agree to it: the Arabs, the Arabs, and the Arabs. — Zola

A Letter to The Dallas Morning News on Sunday, May 8, 1994:

How can a person, who is not a member of a racially oppressed minority, make statements belittling Minister Louis Farrakhan? He is a man who has firsthand knowledge about the issues on which he speaks. Black people have been labeled throughout history. We have been maligned on TV, radio and other public media.

Minister Farrakhan spoke the truth. The label "bloodsuckers" was much too innocent. This label was applied to a race of people with a history steeped in blood. They have made murder, plunder and oppression a way of life. Whites need only to read their own history to know that these things are true...

After deploring that Black people had been labeled throughout history in her first paragraph, the writer goes on to label white people and particularly Jewish people in the next paragraph. "Bloodsuckers" was Farrakhan's term for the Jews with reference to their supposedly taking advantage of black people, a charge with no merit at all. Rather the opposite has been true throughout the civil rights movement as Jewish people stood solidly with Blacks in antidiscrimination activities from the courts to the streets. My quarrel is not with the letter writer but with the newspaper that would print such a spiteful and ignorant letter. Our interest in the issue in this ministry is in regard to prophecy, and especially the Lord's ominous warning to Israel, "Ye shall be hated of all nations" (Matt. 24:9).

Keep in mind, believers, that the Olivet Discourse from which the above prophecy comes is addressed to the Tribulation Period unbelievers. Anti-Semitism is a sin of which no Believer in the King of the Jews should ever be guilty. While anti-Semitic denominations exist in this democratic country, they typically are not populated with true Believers and possess little acquaintance with Scripture. We will be publishing the statements of the major denominations with regard to their position on the Jews and on Israel in an upcoming issue.

— Zola

Dear Zola,

This check represents the firstfruits of a raise I received starting April 2 when I completed a full year with my new job. It came out of my first paycheck that reflected the raise. You are the only Christian "Levite" that I know about, so I thought it would be fitting if I sent it to your ministry.

I have enjoyed your TV program over the years, and have read several of your books. I pray that God will bless you and prosper you and allow you to continue to serve Him in even greater ways.

Zola, I don't want to criticize you, because you are one of God's servants, but just remember who your "first love" really is. I know the Jewish people in general, and the Land of Israel, in particular, is very dear to your heart, but don't leave off the preaching of Christ in order to preach the politics of Israel. If people are right with God, they will love the Jews and support them, and (as the Bible instructs us) pray for the peace of Jerusalem.

I'm afraid there is no "peace" in store for Israel until they welcome the coming "Prince of Peace," but with each day that passes we are one day closer to His coming.

Sincerely, S.H.

Dear S.H.,

Thank you for your gift. I get many letters like this — enough of Israel, get back to the Bible (whatever that means) — and I have answered this complaint on television. The fact is, ours is a unique ministry, especially appointed to inform you about Israel. Your church, if it is a Bible-teaching church, should be covering the more general Christian graces, behaviors, etc. With all that said, I have no apologies for teaching the politics of Israel in view of their relevance to the King and His coming Kingdom. Don't you think that if we are going to reside in Israel for 1,000 years (and this could begin seven years from today), we might want some information about that country in the here and now? Most people research a two-week vacation better than the thousand years they are going to spend in the Promised Land.
