

Letters to Zola

SPECIAL EDITION

We have recently received a large number of candid and timely letters. As you know, Zola is unable to respond to individual inquiries as frequently as he would like, but he has chosen to share a representative sampling with you here.

The group Jews for Judaism takes its name from Jews for Jesus. They are opposed to Jews coming to the Messiah and they go to amazing lengths to try to "reconvert" Jewish people back into non-Messianic Judaism. I myself have received reams of letters purporting to wish to discuss complex doctrines of the Old Testament and so forth but really aiming to "straighten me out." There is some value to looking at the following recent article from the religion section of Columbia, S.C.'s The State newspaper by staff writer Jennifer Graham.

▶ Group Seeks to Reclaim 'Lost' Jews ◀

You've probably heard of Jews for Jesus. What about Jews for Judaism?

It's an idea whose time has come, says a leader of the group, Rabbi Tovia Singer, who recently spoke in Charleston.

Among the questions he raised: "Why have more Jews converted to Christianity in the last 19 years than in the last 1,900 years?"

As of 1990, Singer says, there were about 125,000 so-called "Hebrew Christians" or "Messianic Jews" in the United States. "Clearly," he said, "we must be doing something wrong."

The 50 million or so Americans who consider themselves born-again are obsessed with converting the nation's 5 million Jews, Singer says. Why? He gives three reasons.

▶ The New Testament prioritizes Jews for conversion. Quoting the gospels with the ease of a Baptist preacher, Singer recalls verses like Matthew 10:5, where Jesus says "Go nowhere among the Gentiles. . .but rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

▶ The Jewish people and Israel figure prominently into eschatology, the study of the end times. Many fundamentalists believe Jesus said he would not return until the Jews had been converted. "According to the church, the Jews are holding up the show," Singer said.

▶ Thirdly, the idea of a Messiah is exclusively Jewish, Singer said.

"If you wanted to find the job description of a Messiah, you would find it in the Jewish scriptures. So who should have known the Messiah, who should have recognized him? The Jews."

"Virtually all the world religions accept Jesus on a certain level, at least as a prophet, except Judaism, the very faith he claimed to fulfill.

This has always been a troubling reality to the church."

Keeping the faith. Jews for Judaism was founded in 1985 to counter the efforts of Christians to evangelize Jews and to counsel "Hebrew Christians" back into the fold. Singer travels throughout North America speaking to Jewish and Christian leaders about what motivates evangelicals. (The Catholic Church and most mainline denominations, he says, don't aggressively try to convert Jews.)

A failing of Jewish people, Singer said, is the education of their young. Many Jewish college graduates have the religious education of an 8-year-old. And Jews tend to be Bible illiterates, he says.

"If I see someone on a bus reading the Bible, I know it's a Christian. The Jew is reading the Wall Street Journal," he said.

"Uninformed Jews are like 'sitting ducks,' Singer said. "They have no knowledge of their own faith to defend it."

There is much truth in what the rabbi says and a certain wistful earnestness to his questions. As to the present-day revival among the Jews, this was to be expected as the end times draw near. The spiritual polarization of the whole world is obvious, and the Jews, about whom all right religious faith has always revolved, are no exception.

As to the 50 million born-again Americans being obsessed with converting the Jews, I wish I could find 50 of such zealous spiritual persuasion. The rabbi is perfectly right when he points out that the New Testament, a Jewish book by all Jewish writers published in Israel, prioritizes Jews for conversion. He might also read Acts 10 and 11 when the virtually totally Jewish Church is taken by surprise when Gentiles come to the faith. He is correct in stating how important Jewish people in Israel are to the end times but, like most Jewish people, he has no real appreciation of that fact. He is like a man holding onto a stick of wood in the ocean, pointing at people on a ship and saying, "Those idiots think I'm going to drown."

On his thought-provoking statement on the idea of a Messiah being exclusively Jewish, that was true until the Lord handed the keys of the Kingdom to Peter. There is a moment in the gospel when the directive changes from "Go nowhere among the Gentiles" to "Make disciples of all nations" ("nations" in Hebrew is "goyim" or "gentiles"), and this rabbi, who is "quoting the gospels with the ease of a Baptist preacher," ought to be able to see that. And if, indeed, the job description of a Messiah is found "in the Jewish Scriptures," why hasn't he found it? In fact, he goes on to ask, "So who should have known the Messiah, who should have recognized Him? The Jews." Right again, Rabbi.

His observation about the Catholic church and most mainline denominations not aggressively trying to convert Jews is so sadly true. I seldom speak to the so-called "mainline" denominations and I have been asked only once in my quarter-century speaking career to speak to a Catholic group, and they chose to hold their meeting in a home rather than the church building.

I'm glad the rabbi pointed out that Jews tend to be Bible illiterates because that is another sad truth and is actually the fundamental reason why they don't come to the Lord. Anyone with any sort of open mind will find that Jesus is the Messiah when he reads the Bible. There is good reason that rabbis almost never use it and never quote it in Jewish services.

ISRAEL THE CENTER OF DIVINE HISTORY

Part V

By Thomas S. McCall, Th.D.

AUGUSTINE AND REPLACEMENT THEOLOGY

It was Augustine around A.D. 400 who ultimately articulated the idea, principally in his well-known work, The City of God. Augustine admitted that at one time he had espoused the doctrine of "Chiliasm," the belief in a future millennium, in which the Church and redeemed Israel will be blessed by the personal return and reign of Christ on the earth. However, he had since come to the "more satisfactory" view that the Church has replaced Israel forever. Jerusalem and the Temple were destroyed in fulfillment of prophecy, and the Jews were dispersed throughout the Roman empire. Judaism was branded in the New Testament as an imperfect religion that has been superseded by the Gospel of Christianity. Rome was in its ascendancy as the center of Christian thought and worship.

Rather than looking to some political renewal on this present earth, Augustine taught that we should look to the New Jerusalem, the eternal city of God. In effect, he "leapfrogged" over the Millennium as a future event and saw relationship with God.

the Millennial promises fulfilled in the Church age. He further envisioned the Second Coming of Christ as not ushering in the Millennium, but the Eternal State of the New Heaven, the New Earth, and the New Jerusalem.

Christendom canonized Augustine as an official saint, and theologians throughout the Roman Empire accepted his doctrines. The Chiliasts were branded as holding aberrant views, if not heresy, and Augustinian Replacement Theology became the cornerstone of Roman Catholic concepts. In the later developments in the Eastern Orthodox Church, the European Reformation and the Anglican split, Replacement Theology continued essentially untouched. It was an important part of the standard Christian view of Israel, the world, and prophecy.

The effect of all this on Christian attitudes about Israel was devastating. In actuality, Replacement Theology disenfranchised Israel from having a continuing covenant relationship with God. Instead of looking at Jerusalem as the "City of the Great King," in which Christ will reign for a thousand years upon His return, they saw Jerusalem's perpetual desolation as much as a confirmation of Christianity as the destruction of Pharaoh's army in the Red Sea was a confirmation of Moses.

DOMINANCE OF REPLACEMENT THEOLOGY IN CHURCH HISTORY

This anti-Israel view continued as dominant in Christianity until the rise of Premillennial/Dispensationalism (along with Zionism) in the 19th Century. Replacement Theology is still the majority view among professing Christian theologians, but Premillennialism is by and large considered a legitimate and vocal minority, at least in evangelical Protestant circles.

Thus, in relation to the rise of Zionism and Modern Israel, Christianity has brought a divided message. Some (the Premillennial/Dispensationalists) have applauded the rise of the new State of Israel as evidence of the near fulfillment of the Second

HANUKKAH IN JERUSALEM!

Is your passport ready? Then how about joining our flight to Israel on December 12th for either our 16-day Grand or our 10-day Deluxe tour. Whether you return home on the 21st or the 27th, you'll enjoy Israel during one of the most festive and inexpensive ($1,999 all-inclusive) times of the year. Please call Christi or Cynthia at (214) 690-1876 or 1-800-WONDERS (966-3377) or send now for your brochure.

YOUR EARS CAN MAKE YOU THIN!

Eight audiocassettes by psychologist David Herman packaged with a colorful workbook in a stunning album were enough to help many think positive and drop excess weight. Designed with biblical principles for a secular audience. Our ministry, however, in addition, has printed Dr. Herman's 34-page untold story: the scriptural nuts and bolts for programming yourself to eat healthy. Please mention this ad and order Lightweight for Life for $39 including shipping. You can win at losing!

HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS GO FREE

So far we've been able to take four survivors (plus a daughter) to Israel on our survivors-go-free program. Of course we use no ministry funds for this cause other than those earmarked for the "Survivors Fund." We've sought Holocaust victims who were actually imprisoned in concentration camps, who haven't been to Israel before and who can't cover their own passage. Thanks so much for your help. Regarding Dr. & Mrs. Lew who went with us last December, we said in our January Levitt Letter that they were survivors of Auschwitz. Dr. Lew called to say they were actually in Buchenwald and Dachau. Please forgive the mistake.

TV AIRING UPDATES

In Chicago, WCFC-38 is now airing our TV program Zola Levitt Presents on Tuesday evenings at 8:30. In Columbus, OH, WSFJ-51 our weekly broadcast will resume on Saturday, October 22 at 9:30 p.m.

In Dallas, our final KMPX-29 broadcast will be on Tuesday, October 18. Too few of our Dallas viewers said they were watching us there, so we assume they're tuning us in on KXTX-39 on Sunday evenings at 10:00 and on Saturdays on the FAM and TBN networks. KAZQ-32 in Albuquerque, NM will no longer carry our program. Our records indicated that there was too little viewer support. For those of you who are supporting us, please be sure we know what station(s) and/or network(s) your purchases and donations are "voting" for, so that our stewardship can be effective.

RECEIPTS TO $250+ DONORS

As you know, your contributions to our ministry are tax-deductible. If you donate at least $250 this year, we will automatically send you the year-end receipt required by the IRS. If you give less than $250, you're welcome to a year-end receipt for the asking.

By the way, our '93 audited financial statements are in and available for your perusal. Only 13% of our '93 budget went to payroll, and you will likely be pleased with the remainder of our stewardship. To request a free copy, please write to our P.O. Box.

A NOTE FROM ZOLA

Dear Friends,

Typically I give you an up-to-date report on Israel after each of our tours. But this time I instead want to share an amusing and perhaps useful article which appeared on the front page of the Jerusalem Post in the issue before the Day of Atonement, a day of fasting. For those of you who fast periodically, the following advice may be helpful.

Tips to Keep You Well Over the Fast

Prof. Elliot Berry, head of clinical nutrition at the Hebrew University - Hadassah School of Medicine, offers the following tips for this Yom Kippur:

- The pre-fast meal today should include some salt because the intense heat is likely to deplete the body's sodium supplies through perspiration.
- If possible, pray in an air-conditioned synagogue.
- Don't walk in the heat - "and that includes a trek in 38° (= 100°F) weather to the Western Wall."
- The best way to avoid hunger and thirst during a fast is to eat and drink frequently but gradually during the day before Yom Kippur.
- An ideal meal consists of non-spicy dishes of complex carbohydrates — pasta, potatoes, corn, beans, rice and whole grain bread, with several glasses of water or juice.

- The "anti-fast drops" being sold around the country — "these have absolutely no known beneficial effect."
- People with chronic diseases, such as diabetes or a heart condition, should consult a doctor and/or rabbi before deciding whether to fast.
- Break the fast gradually, beginning with juice, followed by a light snack. Only an hour or so later should one sit down to a full meal.

My own suggestion would be to make your peace with God and come to the Messiah so that your atonement will already be made and you won't have to fast at all, at least to atone for your sins.

Better yet, come with us and see the Land of the Lord and His always most interesting brethren on December 12th.

Be sure to tune in our new House of David series now airing. Thank you again for your generous gifts which made this all happen.

Blessings on you.

Your messenger,

Zola

LETTERS TO ZOLA

Zola Levitt:

I wrote to you before but no response. Why do you pretend to be Jewish when you are Christian?

E.G.K.

Why do you pretend not to know that Jews can be Christians? Of what faith were all of the disciples, all of the apostles, all of the prophets, all of the writers of the books of the Bible and the Messiah? To answer you seriously, a Christian is one who holds that Jesus Christ is his Savior. Whatever else he may be in worldly terms is irrelevant. I am both Jewish and a believer in Yeshua as my Messiah. What is remarkable, when I read Scripture as it is written, is why so few Jewish people have come to the One who fulfilled so many Jewish prophecies of Messiah's coming.

— Zola

Dear Zola,

I didn't get a chance to see the movie Schindler's List, but I've just finished reading the book. If a bedroom scene offends some, then I recommend the book, which treats that aspect of Schindler superficially. Unless the reader has a heart of pure stone, he or she will be emotionally stressed by this book — I was.

The Holocaust must be remembered by all of us. We must also realize that the hundred odd souls imprisoned for days in two frozen rail cars and left to die, as well as Helen Hirsch and Genia, the child in red (and countless others), were victims of a satanic morality, not just a political system. The things shaping up today appear to be taking the same form, so I don't think you're a bit off base when you remind Gentiles (such as me) about them. I suspect that the trend, if it continues unchecked, will probably lead to ovens fueled with both Christians and Jews.

It was what happened to the young Horowitz boy that really stabbed me through the heart. If he is still alive, he must be about my age — a little younger in fact. At a time when the kids in my neighborhood were drinking Kool-Aid and eating peanut butter and cracker sandwiches on a midsummer after- noon, playing and generally doing the things you expect children to do, young Horowitz was being caused to lose his rightful childhood innocence, to witness murders and be subjected to unspeakable terrors, but not to really understand why. I've never thought of a playground swing in terms of a hanging scaffold, but I will from here on.

As for Schindler, he certainly had a flair for women, but he also had an uncommon courage for applying the principle Jesus of Nazareth taught in Matthew 25, "...to the least of these, my brethren..."

Is it possible for a Gentile/Christian to be a Zionist?

Blessings to all of you and to Israel,

R.W.

On your wonderful question of two lines above, why would Gentile Christians not be Zionists? However many years you spend in this life as a Gentile — three score and ten or whatever you get — you will end up 1,000 years as an Israeli, a subject of the King of the Jews who will sit on the throne of David in Jerusalem. I don't care if you don't particularly like Jews, or if you jump up and down in pain every time a Jew goes by, that's your destiny if you are a Christian and that's all there is to that. If you go on one of our tours, you will see Israel for 10 days, and we will send you a brochure and a big pile of papers to inform you about your trip. God has sent you a thousand-page Book about your thousand-year tour of the Land that God Almighty Himself refers to as Zion.

Hebrew Lesson

הַקְּמֵתִי לְדָוִד צֶמַח צְדֵיק

* "tsadeek tsemach l'daveed Hakeemotee"

"I will raise unto David a righteous Branch"
Jeremiah 23:5

* Remember, Hebrew (and the English transliteration) are read from right to left.

Dear Zola:

I have for several years received your Levitt Letter and have sent support for your Ministry. However, I want to make what I think is a constructive criticism.

A ministry should minister and I look at your Letter as a letter of ministry. However, your August 1994 issue was filled with almost totally by how mistreated the Jews are in the world today...during the Holocaust and items involving politics, governments and terrorisms. I know that many do not often get full details of the many incidents that I'm sure do occur, but I see no "ministry" in your last letter. I'd like to know what Zola Levitt Ministries is doing to reach the Jews... not how they are being treated and tormented by their enemies. I'd like to know how your outreach is reaching the Jews for Jesus Christ. I'd like to know how many ministers and programs you have developed to bring Christ to the Jewish people in Israel.

All of the money I see spent on your TV programs and music programs does not tell me how you are reaching the Jews. Perhaps I'm seeing your ministry from a viewpoint that is not correct, and if that be the case, please correct me. But until I see what I apparently haven't seen for some time that your ministry is an outreach to the Jews, I don't think I can support your "ministry" further.

In Christian love, Dr. B.D.W. ☒

Please see next three letters. — Zola

Dearest Zola & Staff:

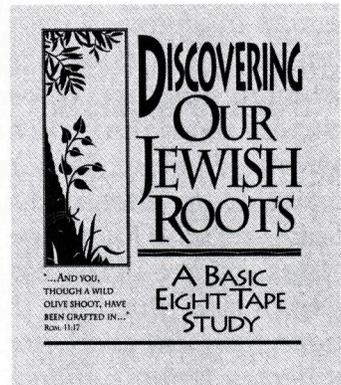

First I want to say THANK YOU for the wonderful work that you do! I receive your Levitt Letter and have been watching your TV program for a couple of years. You pull no punches. You're straightforward and courageous. I've wanted to write to you several times to encourage you to keep up the work that you do, but never did. Now I can't keep silent anymore.

I know you get letters from viewers who complain about "enough of Israel" and "no more about Israeli politics." But I wanted to write to say, MORE! MORE! MORE! And I know many more viewers who feel the same!

There are very few voices out there on Israel's side (besides God's voice, but very few

DISCOVERING OUR JEWISH ROOTS

A one-of-a-kind study with eight audio cassettes and a work book that begins with a survey of Old Testament Messianic Prophecies.

Lovingly designed with the layman in mind, these lessons are simple, direct and from the heart.

Featuring Anne Snell, whom you may recall from our TV spots, their topics range from Gentile Salvation to the Davidic Covenant to Replacement Theology and Islam. You'll learn about the Seven Feasts, Christ in the Tabernacle, Church History, Anti-Semitism and the Holocaust. Packaged in a handsome silk-screened album, they may be ordered on page 12.

listen to Him either). If you don't speak out, who will? We need you to speak out. Most reporting done on Israel, rather secular or religious, is so anti-Israel. We need you to tell us the truth and give us the facts! It hurts me to know that people have even stopped supporting your ministry because of the "political talk." (Really, it's Biblical talk!) I appreciate these programs and all the programs you have done! You and your team have really gone to great lengths to produce great programs. I am thankful for and appreciate all of their talents.

With love in Yeshua, R.B. ☒

LETTERS TO ZOLA

Dear Zola,

In each of your Levitt Letter issues, I read the Letters to Zola and the constant slams against you, against your beliefs, against your attempts to give us a wider perspective of what is happening in Israel, against your Christian teachings, against a certain sentence or a particular word that you may have said on your program. Please, Zola, print this letter as an alternative to these blinded and misguided individuals who fail to see your true spirituality.

Blessed are you, Zola! For you have lifted my spirit and given me the spiritual food that I hunger for. Blessed are you for showing us prophecies being fulfilled. Blessed are you for giving us truth and wisdom. Blessed are you for wishing peace to Jerusalem.

I watch most of the Christian television programs, but you are my favorite. As a Messianic Jew, you have a deeper insight of the whole. You provide what others cannot.

I know that Yeshua has reserved a special place for you in heaven. And when you get there, please pray for me. I am not fruitful, and I can't think of anyone that I've saved or led to the Lord.

In the meantime, you continue to publish month after month the slams against you. Please don't be discouraged by these short-sighted individuals. You have many more followers like me who love your teachings and your good works.

Thank you, Zola. Thank you for keeping me close to the Lord. Thank you for giving me a wide perspective of the good and the evil that is currently going on in the world. Thank you for keeping me posted during these ending times. And please continue in providing the wide spectrum of programs that you have. They are deeply appreciated.

A Follower of the Lord Through You,

B.B.L.

Who was the best financier in the Bible?

Noah. He floated his stock while the whole world was in liquidation.

Dear Brother Zola,

Shalom, I am a Gentile Christian and have seen your weekly TV program Zola Levitt Presents and read your monthly publication, the Levitt Letter. Both have been instrumental in showing me the Jewishness of my Bible and my Messiah. You have also revealed to me that God has never forgotten His covenant with Israel and its people. . .and neither should I! God forbid.

I am now an informed Gentile Christian because of you, Brother Zola. I have an eternal appreciation and gratitude towards Israel and its people. My Jewish Messiah, Jesus, is truly the "God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob," and the "God of Israel." I'm sorry for my past ignorance, but you showed me the light and I'm not in darkness anymore! I have a Jewish perspective on everything and it has divinely transformed my Christian life and walk.

I didn't know Jesus' brothers were Jewish until now. The Bible lessons I impart to my children are to be extra kind to the Jewish people all the time. I was never anti-Semitic but I lacked the unconditional love and commitment towards Israel and her people. You have taught me how to love the Jewish people in a concrete and tangible way. Thank you. It has blessed me to bless God's Chosen People, just as the Bible says.

T.U.

Here is a paragraph from a letter we recently received.

I'm in total agreement with your view and with the article by Moshe Zak of the Jerusalem Post. I believe most people want peace but I really don't believe that it's the real PLO agenda. God's prophecies are taking shape in significant ways, but today, in America, we are saturated and distracted by other sensational events such as the O.J. Simpson tragedy, political scandal and such. Satan is really trying desperately to turn our attention away from the things of heaven. We must not get caught up in all this sensationalism. Great article, Zola!

ISRAEL THE CENTER OF DIVINE HISTORY

Coming of Christ. However, many representatives of official Christianity (the Replacement Theologians) are either neutral or antagonistic.

CHRISTIANITY BOTH PRO- AND ANTI-ISRAEL

Such organizations as the Roman Catholic Church and the World Council of Churches have, for the last half century, taken positions favoring the Arab and Moslem enemies of Israel. They have defended this bias partly by claiming representation in the various countries involved. But a vital part of this bias is based on the theological convictions that cannot abide the resurrection of Israel from the ashes of the Dispersion.

It is with considerable reluctance that the Vatican has recognized Israel, and the Church's primary interest is in asserting its influence in maintaining its Holy Places in Jerusalem. Similarly, the World Council of Churches has consistently pled the cause of Palestinians against the claims of Israel.

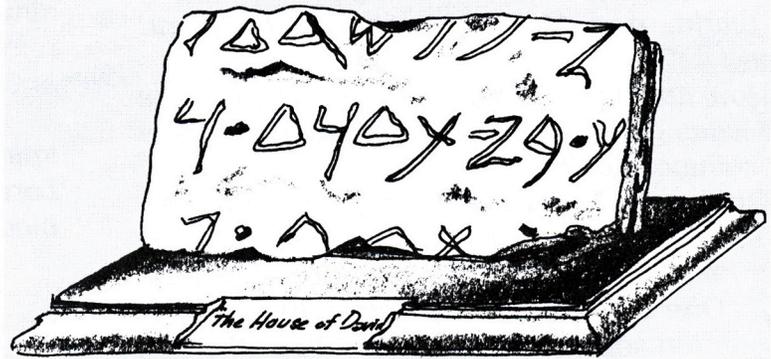

Thus, Christianity has, because of its differing theological views about the future of Israel, had a divided attitude about Zionism and the revived State of Israel. Part of Christianity has expressed delight with the modern Israel, while part has been very negative toward Israel's very existence. (To be continued)

THE HOUSE OF DAVID STONE REPLICA

Found July 21, 1993 in northern Israel, this ninth-century B.C. inscription bears the first reference to King David ever found outside the Bible. Reading from right to left in Aramaic, the phrase is pronounced, "Bate Da-veed." This term refers to a dynasty or an unending kingship.

The Davidic Covenant

And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee; thy throne shall be established for ever. (II Samuel 7:16)

He (Jesus) shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32)

To get your handsome House of David Stone replica with the inscription above, please order from page 11.

LETTERS TO ZOLA

A friend of the ministry referred me to the following remarks by a very good pastor, John Wesley. We were both amazed that the references to the decaying society that is the subject of this sermon is England of 1760 and not our own land in 1994.

See how our own country mourns and suffers under the outpourings and overflowings of ungodliness! What crimes of every kind are committed each day, too often with impunity. Many sin with a high-handedness and glory in their shame! They brag about their acts. Who can count up all the oaths, curses, profanities, blasphemies; all the Sabbath-breaking, gluttony, drunkenness, revenge; the fornications, adulteries, and various uncleannesses; the frauds, injustice, oppression, and extortion which cover over our land as a flood of evil?

And even those who have kept themselves away from these grosser acts are not innocent. How much anger, pride, sloth, idleness, softness, effeminacy, self-indulgence, covetousness, ambition, thirst of praise, love of the world, and fear of man is to be found among us?

How little true religion is there! Where is he who loves either God or his neighbor as Jesus has commanded?

On the one hand, there are those who have not so much as the form of godliness. On the other hand, there are those who have the form only. One is the open sepulcher, the other is the painted sepulcher. In any public gathering, including our own churches, one part is Sadducees and the other Pharisees. One part has almost as little concern about religion as if there were no resurrection. The other part makes religion a mere lifeless form, a dull round of external performances, without true faith, the love of God, or joy in the Holy Spirit.

I wish to God that I could exclude all of us from this charge. My heart's desire and prayer for you is that you may be saved from this overflowing of ungodliness, and excluded from this group. But are you excluded? God knows, and our own consciences know otherwise. You have not kept yourselves pure. You are also corrupt and abominable. There are but few who understand God and worship Him in spirit and truth.

We are a generation that has not set our hearts right. Our spirits do not cling steadfastly unto God. He has called and appointed us to be the salt of the earth. "But if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trodden under foot by men."

"Shall I not visit you for these things?" says the Lord. "Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?" We do not know how soon He may say to the sword, "Sword, go through this land." He has given us a long time to repent. He lets us alone this year also. But He warns and awakens us by thunder. His judgments are abroad in this world. He judges all of us. We have all the reason to expect the worst. He could come quickly and remove us from our special place unless we repent and do the first works, and return to the principles of the living faith, truth, and simplicity of the gospel.

Perhaps we are now resisting the last effort of divine grace to save us. Perhaps we have almost filled up the cup with our iniquities, by rejecting the counsel of God against ourselves, and casting out His messengers.

It is high time for us to awake out of spiritual sleep before the great trumpet of the Lord is blown, and our land becomes a field of blood.

Charles Wesley, eighteenth century

A friend sent us a Ku Klux Klan application form which I assume is authentic. I'm a little perplexed about the question below, since I qualify as all three but somehow feel that they really wouldn't want me as a member.
