Zola Levitt Ministries Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

DALLAS, TX – The Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA) announced today the accreditation of Zola Levitt Ministries of Dallas, TX.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Zola Levitt Ministries joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 20 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to include in our membership a ministry committed to teaching the Bible with an emphasis on Israel, prophecy, and the Jewish roots of Christianity,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 1979, Zola Levitt Ministries (www.levitt.com) offers a free monthly newsletter that gives a concise Biblical perspective with updates on recent events in Israel. Zola Levitt Ministries Institute of Jewish-Christian Studies correspondence course teaches the Jewish roots of the Christian faith to more than 3,000 currently-enrolled students. They have an online store which carries a large number of teaching materials. They offer several tours each year to Israel and speakers for churches, civic groups, university conferences and the like to speak on the subject of the Holy Land, End-times Prophecy, and general Bible discussions.

To learn more about Zola Levitt Ministries and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch@, ECFA's program that matches God's servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA's newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
